

THE MAKING OF CONUNDRUM

A work in progress with lecture demonstration

FEB. 18TH - 2:00 PM
DANCEWORKS

1661 N. WATER ST - MILWAUKEE, WI

$12.00

"Conundrum" is a work in progress to be performed later this spring. This session is an opportunity for an audience to experience, in real time the "methods" used to create a new dance work.

PETER STATHAS DANCE

Mr. Stathas' student career began at UW-Stevens Point and continued at SUNY-Purchase.

In 1977, he moved to New York City and began his professional study and performance, working with Jose Limon Dance, Marta Renzi, Gerri Houlihan, Maggie Black, Lar Lubovitch, Zena Rommett, Mel Wong, Mark Morris, Twyla Tharp, and Bill T. Jones.

In 1978, he was awarded the American Dance Festival's Young Choreographer's award and in 1980, he received the Dance Theatre Workshop Young Choreographer's award.

In 1990, Peter received his BS in Physical Therapy and went on to found Freedom Physical Therapy Services in 1992.

Co-hosted by Danceworks, Inc. danceworksmke.org/purchase-tickets